Seesaw Affair at Cincinnati.
CINCINNATI, OHIO, August 3.—Today's game between Cincinnati and Boston was a seesaw affair, the lead being changed several times during the contest. Cincinnati finally won out on Hitt's single, a hunt by Huggins, Lo-

CLOSE BRILLIANT AT BRIGHTON TRACK

An Immense Crowd and Fine Sport Mark Final Day of the Season.

CHARLES EDWARD A WINNER

Defeats Frank Gill and Makes a Record for the Brighton Track.

NEW YORK, August 3.—Brighton Beach had a brilliant closing to-day, the racing now shifting to Saratoga.
With perfect weather and an attendance of $25,000, the running of the Brighton Derby was under ideal conditions, though the race was robbed of much interest by the withdrawal of all but two entries. Charles Edward and Frank Gill fought it out for the $15,000, and the former won by four lengths in time that marks a record for the Brighton track and falls but 3.5 of a second below the world's record for a mile and a half. The time was 2:30 4-5, and Charles Edward was a 2 to 6 favorite. Summaries: First race—about two and a half miles; steeplechase—Garrett (9 to 5) first, Essex (18 to 5) second, Paperink (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:45.
Second race—selling; mile and sixteenth—Saylor (7 to 1) first, Druid (8 to 1) second, Reidmore (18 to 5) third. Time, 3:45.
Third race—The Wingfield Handicap; six furlongs—Master Robert (8 to 1) first, Live Wire (4 to 1) second, Rialto (6 to 1) third. Time, 1:12 3-5.
Fourth race—The Brighton Derby; mile and a half—Charles Edward (2 to 6) first, Frank Gill (11 to 5) second. Time, 2:30 4-5.
Fifth race—selling; six furlongs—Smyrkes (8 to 1) first, William H.
Lyon (4 to 5) second, Servile (7 to 1) third. Time, 1:13 4-5.
Sixth race—six furlongs—Robin Hood (8 to 1) first, Lady Anne (8 to 5) second, Crackenthorpe (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:12 1-5.

HECHLER IS HIGH GUN AT SHOOT

Wins Point for Club Medal and

GREAT GOLF LINKS IN DEMAND NOW

Richmond Enthusiasts in the Sport Are Agitating for Country Club.

WOULD ATTRACT MANY HERE

A new movement has been inaugurated in this city to provide a great Country Club for Richmond. It is the hope of the projectors of the plan that the three existing clubs, none of which owns its grounds, may be combined into one great organization, and that the membership and enthusiasm thus provided will justify the purchase of sufficient available land for all purposes and the construction thereon of a commodious and perfectly appointed clubhouse which will be the pride of its members and of the city.

Some action looking to securing quarters for the club is almost imperative. All three—the Hermitage, the Deep Run Hunt Club and the Lakeside Club—lease their grounds and own their buildings. Hermitage has a ninety-day lease and may be called upon to vacate at any time. The others have no certainty of long tenure, and in each case the lease money paid by the three would probably pay interest on the investment for a complete clubhouse and grounds.

The great and growing interest in golf is awakening enthusiasts to the need of an eighteen-hole golf course.
The two now in use are but nine-hole courses and are poorly equipped for the game.
With a complete course and well-equipped clubhouse, it is the confident belief of many that the golf cracks on their way to Pinehurst, Alhambra and Florida resorts would include Richmond in their itinerary and would play with the best of the local golfers.
Matches might be arranged with the best clubs of the East, and a great impetus given to one of the country's greatest sports.

The Hermitage Club has a membership of about 400; the Deep Run Hunt of about 225; the Lakeside Club of about 220. With this nucleus only about 150 more members would be needed to provide a membership of 1,000. Such a club, it is contended, could so fix its fees that it would be self-supporting in every way. A default financial plan is being prepared to show the feasibility of the great country club idea. Something like 50 to 100 acres of land would be sufficient for the purpose. It is said, and the sum realized from sale of the equipment of the existing clubs would be available for the new building. It is roughly estimated that $75,000 would purchase sufficient land and construct the clubhouse, and with a membership of 1,000 this would be only about $75 per capita. Various details of a plan have been suggested, and these will be thruled out later.

HERMITAGE IS VICTOR IN THIRD

Lakeside Golfers Beaten in Tournament Played Out in Rain-Storm.

The third match in the interclub golf tournament was played over the Hermitage Club links yesterday afternoon and resulted in that club's winning over Lakeside Country Club by a score of 20 to 17, Nassau scoring.
Thirty-six players took part, making eighteen players for each club. The rain-storm delayed the starting, but after the first ball was driven, nothing but darkness put an end to the game, the players continuing through the later or second shower, despite the downpour. The failure to turn in several scores was accounted for by darkness, which overtook the players.
The match yesterday evidenced an increased interest in golf.
The indifference to the warring elements on the part of old and young alike showed the true sporting instinct. The fourth match of the series will be played over the Lakeside links Saturday, the 10th. The interest in the result is very keen.

Nothing in recent years has been done to so stimulate the interest in golf in Richmond as the present interclub tournament. Every member of both clubs now in the city is playing.
The esprit du corps is very marked.
Following is the summary of yesterday's match.
Hermitage—S. J. Moon, 0; R. H.
Meade, 1; G. Harrison, 2; H. S. Jones, 3; John E. Orgain, 1; C. R. Burnett, 0; J. Anderson, 2; C. P. Cadot, 3; Tucker Harrison, 1; C. E. Borden, 1; J. P.
Leary, 0; James Mullen, 3; E. T.
Orgain, 3; W. P. Wilson, 0—20.
Lakeside—H. K. Elyson, 3; W. H.
Palmer, 2; M. M. Martin, 0; J. H. Alkinson, 0; F. J. D. Mackey, 0; O. B. Hill, 1; G. Gray, 3; James Young, 2; E. M.
Pletcher, 1; L. McK. Judkins, 0; Levin Jones, 1; J. L. Antrim, 1; D. Elyson, 3; W. Johnson, 0—17.

The effort to play two baseball games at Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon ended in an ineffectual riot when Umpire Harry Truby very properly called the second game in the first half of the fifth inning and forfeited it to Roanoke on account of the obvious effort of the Richmond team to delay the game by converting it into a farce and by preventing the completion of five innings, avert defeat.

The first game had been cut short by rain in the sixth inning, with the score 2 to 1 in favor of Richmond, but Roanoke was leading by 3 to 0 at the beginning of the fifth inning, of the bases, with one man out and two on the bases, the umpire, seeing that Richmond was attempting to thwart further play by such discreditable tactics, promptly called the game and declared it forfeited to Roanoke by the usual score, 9 to 0.

Protests and Excitement.

The announcement of this result called forth loud protests from the partisans of the Richmond team, and as Mr. Truby started off the field an angry crowd rushed toward him, many shouting offensive epithets at him and apparently made hostile demonstrations toward him. The crowd in the grandstand rushed to the front of the stand just above the Richmond players' bench, and by strenuous efforts of the officers, aided and encouraged by police commissioners who were present, the crisis was safely passed, and the umpire was escorted from the grounds without injury. He was followed by a large crowd, most of them doubtless actuated more by curiosity than by lawless intentions.

Fearing a personal assault on the umpire, Chief of Police Werner and eight or ten patrolmen and bicycle officers rushed to the rescue, and with the use of their sticks and by sheer muscular power managed to disperse the vortex of angry or curious humanity which swirled around the umpire.
The chief himself was in the thick of the fray, and by strenuous efforts of the officers, aided and encouraged by
police commissioners who were present,
the crisis was safely passed, and the
without injury. He was followed by a large crowd, most of them doubtless
actuated more by curiosity than by law-
less intentions.

The umpire is accused of an Erroneous Decision in Favor of R. F. & P.

The baseball game between the Northside Pete and the R. F. & P. team yesterday afternoon ended in a forfeit early in the contest, owing to a decision. It appears from the claims of one manager that an R.
F. and P. base-runner interfered with the fielder by catching the ball thrown to third. base, and then scored, the umpire allowing the run. Thereupon the Pete quit. The manager of the other team sends in a communication, wherein he gives no details of the provocation given the Pete for quitting.
The statements of the two managers, slightly edited, appear herewith:

To the Sporting Editor, The Times-Dispatch: Sir—The Northside Pete started a game with the R. F. and P. team and played one inning and were given a very bad decision by the umpire. The runner should have been out, he deliberately catching the ball that was thrown from home to third, after he had been caught between bases. He then scored, the umpire calling him safe.
Thereupon the Pete refused to play any more on such a decision.

JOHN SUTLIFF,
Manager.

To the Sporting Editor, The Times-Dispatch: Sir—The R. F. and P. team won from the Northside Pete in a one-inning contest, rather characterized by kicking and squabbling on the part of the Pete. In the first inning they were retired in order, and when R. F. and P. came in the kicking began.
With the score 2 to 0 and three on bases, the Pete refused to play, and the game was forfeited by Umpire Greenway to the R. F. and P. 9 to 0.
